

We are hiring a full-time Advocate/Counsellor

If you are a radical feminist with experience and a profound understanding of the impact and dynamics of male violence against women and girls in intimate relationships, sexual harassment, and sexual exploitation, prostitution and sex trafficking, we would like to hear from you!

We are hiring a full-time Advocate/Counsellor to join our team.

The agency is an abolitionist, anti-pornography agency.
Women applying should support these views.

If you have these skills and experience, and support our views, we want to hear from you!

We are looking for a radical feminist advocate with the following skills and experiences:

- five years experience providing woman-centred, trauma-informed support, advocacy and counselling to women and girls;
- advocating on behalf of women and girls at individual, community and institutional levels;
- supporting women and girls who have been prostituted/trafficked/sexually exploited/assaulted;
- working with women and girls from diverse cultures, and those being abused in same-sex relationships;
- supporting women in the criminal justice system;
- French, Spanish, or other second language skills are an asset;
- access to a vehicle.

The London Abused Women's Centre is a feminist agency that operates as a team where the voices of each employee are valued.

Please submit a resume and cover letter of application via email by October 13th, 2020 to:

Jennifer Dunn
Business Manager
jen@lawc.on.ca
www.lawc.on.ca

No phone calls or personal visits please.

While we appreciate all applicants, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

COVID-19 Update: The London Abused Women's Centre is following the provincial guidelines to be open to the public and continue to provide immediate access to support for women and girls in our community. LAWC has acrylic barriers installed in each counselling office, administrative office, the client waiting area and the front reception desk. Masks are provided to every person that enters the building. The London Abused Women's Centre has a detailed 'Service During Covid-19' protocol that every staff member, visitor and client must follow, this protocol will be outlined during the interview process.